LITTLE need be said in introducing this book to the members of the Church.

It contains the entire Psalms and Hymns arranged alphabetically in lines, and its simple object is to enable a person to find any Psalm or Hymn, by referring to any line contained therein.

The importance of such a help to both clergy and laity will readily be perceived.

It will save much time to the clergy by enabling them speedily to choose suitable Psalms and Hymns for public worship, a single line so often expressing the subject of the sermon, the season, or the subjects presented in the lessons for the day.

It will enable worshippers who may not have heard the number of the Psalm or Hymn announced, readily to turn to it, if they can hear any line by the minister or choir.

When we reflect upon the great prominence given to praise in our public worship—the beauty of harmony of subjects as well as of sounds, the great effectiveness produced upon the minds of the congregation, when the desk, the choir and the pulpit, combine in the presentations of the same truths; the desire to “sing with the understanding” as well as with the spirit, and the universal wish of the worshipper to follow the words of the choir in mind, if not in voice, the importance of this aid to our public worship may be estimated.

But there is another desideratum which this book is designed to accomplish. Who that has witnessed, does not know with what delight the sick, the afflicted, and the dying, seize upon detached portions of the Psalms and Hymns in which to offer their prayer or praise, or to give utterance to their sentiments? Such a manual then becomes valuable to the sick room; it should be in the house of every churchman.

For these reasons it is hoped that it will materially aid to the more consistent worship of Almighty God in the songs of praise, and that its importance will be so appreciated and made so apparent that no clergyman's study, no chancel, and no pew will be considered furnished without a copy of this useful Manual.

| 24     | But for himself this Lord of all.....        | 19     |      | 3     | 1     |
| 119    | But give me lively power and strength.....   | 97     | 5    | 5     | 3     |
| 93     | But God above can still their noise.....     | 72     |      | 3     | 3     |
| 104    | But God forever is the same.....             | 84     |      | 3     | 5     |

| And root it from thy ground.....               | 49    | 4     | 4     |
| And round the empty stall.....                 | 208   | 3     | 3     |
| And rove, my soul, no more.....                | 24    | 3     | 4     |
| And rule in equity.....                        | 54    | 1     | 8     |
| And sadly muse on former joys.....             | 92    | 4     | 3     |
| And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress..... | 144   | 3     | 4     |
| And save me from eternal pain.....             | 121   | 5     | 4     |
| And save the soul condemn'd to die.....        | 135   | 6     | 4     |
| And scan his work in vain.....                 | 12    | 6     | 2     |
| And scatter'd ancient night.....               | 4     | 3     | 4     |
| And see again thy face.....                    | 80    | 4     | 4     |
| And see a heavenly day.....                    | 16    | 2     | 4     |
| And see our Father's face.....                 | 19    | 5     | 4     |
| And see the Canaan that we love.....           | 199   | 5     | 3     |
| And see thee face to face.....                 | 185   | 3     | 8     |
| And see thy glory, face to face.....           | 159   | 1     | 6     |
| And seek the glorious things above.....        | 70    | 2     | 3     |
| And sees the fruit.....                        | 79    | 2     | 7     |
| And sees the tempter fly.....                  | 176   | 3     | 4     |
| And send deliverance from on high.....         | 82    | 1     | 4     |
| And sent the early rain.....                   | 84    | 2     | 4     |
| And shall a pardon'd rebel live.....           | 59    | 3     | 3     |
| And shall man alone be dumb.....               | 155   | 4     | 1     |
| And shall to eternity stand.....               | 153   | 4     | 4     |
| And shines in all the fairest charms.....      | 92    | 1     | 3     |
| And shine with cloudless day.....              | 28    | 2     | 6     |
| And shout him welcome to the skies.....        | 72    | 4     | 4     |
| And show the vileness of its worth.....        | 14    | 2     | 4     |
| And sighs are unavailing.....                  | 194   | 3     | 4     |

| And tell thy goodness all abroad.....                  | 89    | 1     | 4     |
| And temples rise to fix thy Name.....                  | 105   | 4     | 5     |
| And tempt our thoughts or tongues to strife.....       | 178   | 1     | 2     |
| And that shall kindle ours.....                        | 75    | 4     | 4     |
| And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears....    | 187   | 2     | 4     |
| And the herd desert the stall.....                     | 83    | 5     | 4     |
| And the last awful day shall pour.....                 | 193   | 7     | 3     |
| And, the light of hope revealing.....                  | 150   | 2     | 7     |
| And the noontide of glory eternally reigns.....        | 187   | 4     | 4     |
| And the peace that from it flows.....                  | 150   | 1     | 4     |
| And the rising year destroy.....                       | 83    | 6     | 4     |
| And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.... | 187   | 5     | 4     |
| And thee, with both, O Holy Ghost.....                 | 74    | 6     | 3     |
| And their Creator love.....                            | 114   | 2     | 4     |
| And there, divine employ.....                          | 200   | 5     | 2     |
| And these rejoicing eyes.....                          | 32    | 1     | 4     |
| And these the rules by which we live.....              | 178   | 2     | 4     |
| And they are found no more.....                        | 122   | 4     | 4     |
| And they, exalted, dwell with me.....                  | 207   | 4     | 3     |
| And they shall praise a pardoning God.....             | 135   | 7     | 4     |
| And this shall be the sign.....                        | 43    | 3     | 4     |
| And those who put their trust in thee.....             | 209   | 3     | 3     |
| And thou, descending, fill the place.....              | 101   | 2     | 3     |
| And thou, the Lord, shalt be our God.....              | 202   | 4     | 3     |
| And though deliverance he may stay.....                | 85    | 2     | 3     |
| And through the numerous guilty throng.....            | 193   | 2     | 3     |
| And through the pleasing snares of vice.....           | 10    | 7     | 3     |
| And through thy goodness all things stand.....         | 3     | 2     | 3     |

| And thus prepare to meet him.....                      | 194   | 4     | 7     |
| And thus surround the throne.....                      | 149   | 1     | 4     |
| And thus the Lord reveals his grace.....               | 126   | 4     | 1     |
| And thy forgiving love impart.....                     | 96    | 6     | 3     |
| And time unhallow'd, unimproved.....                   | 51    | 2     | 3     |
| And, to effect this glorious change.....               | 95    | 1     | 3     |
| And to his house we'll go.....                         | 55    | 2     | 4     |
| And, to make our safety sure.....                      | 22    | 3     | 3     |
| And to resist mine own.....                            | 138   | 3     | 4     |

| And to the earth be peace.....                         | 95    | 4     | 2     |
| And to the Lamb be given.....                          | 93    | 4     | 4     |
| And touch the sweetest string.....                     | 5     | 2     | 6     |

| Bringing and bestowing good.....                  | 61    | 1     | 4    |
| Bring me to my heavenly home.....                 | 18    | 4     | 4    |
| Bring me to my Saviour's feet.....                | 183   | 4     | 3    |
| Bring near, bring near the joyful hour.....       | 137   | 5     | 3    |
| Brought safely by his hand thus far.....          | 157   | 2     | 1    |
| But, ah, how blind, how weak we are.....          | 178   | 5     | 1    |
| But, ah, how far from mortal sight.....           | 200   | 3     | 1    |
| But ah, our deserts deep and wild.....            | 106   | 4     | 1    |
| But all the notes which mortals know.....         | 96    | 2     | 1    |
| But blot their memory from thy book.....          | 135   | 1     | 4    |
| But can it be? That Power divine.....             | 165   | 3     | 1    |
| But children of the heavenly King.....            | 149   | 2     | 3    |
| But Christ, our ransom, died.....                 | 124   | 3     | 4    |
| But, clothed in spotless purity.....              | 198   | 3     | 3    |
| But died without the sight.....                   | 52    | 4     | 4    |
| But, ere the trumpet shakes.....                  | 193   | 5     | 1    |
| But fix'd his word, his saving power remains..... | 53    | 4     | 3    |
| But for a moment felt the rod.....                | 127   | 3     | 2    |
| But formless was the earth, and void.....         | 4     | 2     | 1    |
| But fruits of life and glory grow.....            | 1     | 3     | 3    |
| But grace has set me free.....                    | 174   | 1     | 4    |
| But graciously restored.....                      | 68    | 5     | 2    |
| But grant me nobler favors still.....             | 121   | 5     | 1    |
| But harmless as the peaceful dove.....            | 97    | 3     | 2    |
| But if my culture prove in vain.....              | 49    | 4     | 1    |
| But joy returns with rising day.....              | 123   | 4     | 4    |
| But let me still abide.....                       | 176   | 6     | 5    |
| But long to know and love thee more.....          | 96    | 4     | 2    |
| But lo! the gracious Saviour pleads.....          | 49    | 3     | 1    |
| But lo! what sudden joys we see.....              | 72    | 3     | 3    |

| But nobler benefits declare.....                  | 132   | 2     | 3    |
| But not a resting-place above.....                | 24    | 1     | 3    |
| But not search the bough again.....               | 117   | 5     | 4    |
| But now I feel an aching void.....                | 182   | 3     | 3    |
| But now my tears are vain.....                    | 64    | 4     | 2    |
| But now we rise by grace divine.....              | 16    | 2     | 3    |
| But now with glory crown'd.....                   | 212   | 1     | 4    |
| But O! eternity's too short.....                  | 10    | 13    | 3    |
| But one communion make.....                       | 26    | 5     | 2    |
| But on his grace rely.....                        | 90    | 3     | 2    |
| But rising griefs distress my soul.....           | 159   | 2     | 1    |

| But sacred, high, eternal noon.....             | 50    | 8     | 4     |
| But saved me from eternal woe.....              | 161   | 2     | 4     |
| But sinners, fill'd with guilty fears.....      | 194   | 3     | 1     |
| But Sion, with his presence blest.....          | 35    | 1     | 5     |
| But soon he'll break death's envious chain..... | 63    | 4     | 1     |
| But still in bondage I am held.....             | 181   | 4     | 3     |
| But still thy wisdom, power, and grace.....     | 1     | 1     | 3     |
| But sweet will be the flower.....               | 12    | 5     | 4     |
| But teems with health, when heaven ordains..... | 121   | 3     | 4     |
